

I Am Dufferin: Employee Highlight

Featuring Mark Schildroth of Corporate Services

Name: Mark Schildroth

Hometown: Toronto, Ontario

Position: Communications Assistant

Department: Corporate Services

Mark's career has led him all over Ontario, from Toronto to Windsor. He has family in Bruce County, York Region and Waterloo, but he "feels at home with the County of Dufferin."

Education: Mark is a graduate of the Odette School of Business at the University of Windsor. He has a Bachelor of Commerce in Business Administration and a double minor in Political Science and Labour Studies. He also has a Postgraduate Certificate in Corporate Communications from Seneca College. His employment with Dufferin County is a co-op placement which completes his studies at Seneca College.

Hobbies/Interests: Mark plays hockey, basketball and baseball and he is a sports fanatic. He is a die-hard Leaf fan, a loyal Raptors and Blue Jays enthusiast and he is looking forward to the start of the Orangeville A's basketball season.

Favourite Place in Dufferin County: Hiking on the Bruce Trail.

Favourite Part of Job: Having kind, welcoming and helpful colleagues.

"Everyday there's new challenges. I'm often involved with multiple tasks and departments, but the kindness and positive work environment is always consistent throughout."

Community Impacts: As recently as Saturday, October 3, Mark was involved in the Hazardous and Electronic Waste Event at the Primrose Operations Centre.

"Dufferin County is a leader in Waste Management Services and I am proud to have had the opportunity to represent the County and make a difference."

Causes Mark Cares About: Cancer research, concussion research, environmental sustainability and world peace.

"In university, I had the chance to participate in several charity events. I'm always looking for new opportunities to make a positive impact."
