

I Am Dufferin: Employee Highlight

Featuring Eric Carr of Public Works

Name: Eric Carr

Department: Public Works

Hometown: Orangeville, Ontario

Position: Engineering Technician (GIS)

Education: University of Windsor, BA (Hons.) Geography in Environmental Resource Management and Fleming College, Geographic Information Systems Application Specialist (GIS-AS).

Hobbies/Interests: Travel, soccer, skiing, fly fishing, harmonica, live music, heritage architecture, history, genealogy and movies.

Favourite Place in Dufferin County: “It’s a tie between eating at Soulyve and Corriander Kitchen.”

Favourite Part of Job: “Working on Asset Management and Interactive Web Mapping.”

Awards/Achievements: “Getting a public interactive mapping website up and running.”

Community Impacts: “I am a member of Heritage Orangeville.”

Causes Eric Cares About: Headwaters Health Care Centre, Trout Unlimited Canada and Orangeville Food Bank.