

I Am Dufferin: Employee Highlight

Featuring Sarah Robinson of the DCMA

Name: Sarah Robinson

Hometown: Alton, Ontario

Department: Dufferin County
Museum & Archives

Position: Curator

Education/Experience: Sarah has been with the DCMA for five years and has an Honours B.A. in History, University of Guelph and an Advanced Diploma in Museum Studies, Algonquin College.

Hobbies/Interests: Ottawa Valley Stepdance, hiking and travelling.

Favourite Place in Dufferin County: Barley Vine Rail, Mono Cliffs Provincial Park and The Shelburne Fiddle Contest.

Favourite Part of Job: “Working with our many DCMA volunteers, speaking with members of the Dufferin community about our local history and researching artifacts as they come into the collection.”

Notable Achievement: Launching the DCMA exhibits, “If the Walls Could Talk” and “Noteworthy”.

Community Impacts: “Proud to be working alongside DCMA staff with the Digital Historian Program (DHP), winner of the Government of Canada History Award.”

Causes Sarah Cares About: The Bruce Trail Conservancy