Best Bloomin' Edible Garden (tie):
Annika Paterson of Hunter Road
Juli Griffin of Victor Large Way

Best Bloomin' Patio: Montana's BBQ & Bar

Best Bloomin' Container Gardens: Karen and Don Lang of Elizabeth Street

Best Bloomin' Seniors Residence: Lord Dufferin Centre, 32 First Street.

Best Bloomin' Condo/Apartment: Manor Apartments on Second Avenue

Best Bloomin' Business: Rustik Bistro, 199 Broadway

Best Public Building: Dufferin County Courthouse on Zina Street

Best School: Credit Meadows Elementary School

Best Floral: Jelena Audet of Alder Street

The Orangeville Communities in Bloom Committee participated in the provincial CiB competition and expects to receive those results on September 17.

The committee currently has a photo contest underway. Upload a photo of your garden in the comments section of photo contest post on Facebook page for a chance to win a jug of Miracle Grow Shake and Feed. Share the post and encourage your friends to like your photo. The photo with the most likes wins. Contest ends Sunday, August 21 at 8 p.m.

Contest Details:

1. The photo must be of your own garden, or of a friend's garden that you wish to nominate. Nominate a friend by tagging them in the photo.
2. Winner will be visited by members of the Communities in Bloom committee to deliver their prize and a sign for their lawn.
3. Must be a resident of Orangeville.
4. Photo must be uploaded in the comments section of the original post by Orangeville Communities in Bloom to qualify.
5. Like the Orangeville Communities in Bloom Facebook page while you're there.

Best Public Building:

The Dufferin County Administration Building at 55 Zina Street, took the prize for Best Public Building, thanks to the hard work of the facilities staff.
