Extending Our Hours to Serve Our Residents Better

Dufferin – In an effort to provide better access to a multitude of services provided by the County of Dufferin the offices at the W&M Edelbrock Centre and the County Courthouse are extending their Tuesday hours until September 11th, 2018.

“Many of Dufferin County’s residents are unable to make it in to our offices during traditional business hours to access the services they need” said Michelle Dunne, Deputy Clerk of Dufferin County. “We recognize that people are busy and many commute out of the area for work so we felt that extending our hours would provide greater access for those residents” Dunne stated.

From now until September 11th, 2018 the W&M Edelbrock Centre will be open from 8:30 am until 7:00 pm on Tuesdays. As the home of the county’s Community Services Department the Edelbrock Centre is a social services hub offering financial, housing and children’s services.

The County Courthouse is home to several County departments including Administration, Corporate Services and Infrastructure and Environment. With extended Tuesday hours of 7:00 am until 7:00 pm residents can access building department services, waste and recycling resources and just about anything else they may need from the County.

“This is just one way we can better serve the residents of Dufferin County” said Dunne. For additional information about the extended hours or any Dufferin County services please call 519-941-2816 or email info@dufferincounty.ca.
