

Raising the Bar

2015 Monthly Focus for June — Leadership

- Post this RTB bulletin and discuss contents at a staff meeting, use the questions of reflection to start the conversation. Watch a Ministry of Education Video to spark the conversation.
- Review section 10 in your binder. Parent and family engagement. Describe parent and families engagement strategies. Provide two examples and dates of occurrences. How could you make this engagement visible ?
- Review section 12 . What are your mentoring strategies? Enter performance review dates on the individual Staff Profile Label. Submit a copy of the format you use for performance reviews.
- Review section 13. Record monthly logs of staff meetings in addition to team meetings.

“Successful leaders see the opportunities in every difficulty rather than the difficulty in every opportunity.” Reed Markham

Questions For Reflection:

- How can families have a stronger “voice` in the program?
- Which policies and procedures can administrators put into place to ensure every educator feels that his or her voice is heard and valued?
- What opportunities are there for educators to be leaders in your centre? Could staff take on acts of leadership like facilitating team meetings, leading community projects, or contributing to the staff newsletter.
- How could you encourage formal and informal mentoring relationships?
- What improvements could be made to strengthen educators abilities to reflect on their actions, communicate and engage in collaborative decision making.
